Menominee Way Trait Week Four: Leadership By Editor

Each Sunday night, the Camp Menominee CIT's present The Way. This ceremony highlights a specific pillar of the six characteristics our camp calls The Menominee Way. This week, the CIT's decided to discuss 'Leadership.'

"Leadership: Whether it's picking up trash off the ground or encouraging your team, leadership is an essential part of camp. A leader is someone who inspires others to work together for a purpose bigger than themselves, by putting the team first and setting a good example. Leaders can bring people together and mould kids into teams."

Congratulations to the following individuals who were honored for their exemplary leadership.

JEREMY KOHLENBRENER. JEREMY has been at camp for a number of years and has taken on one of the most important leadership roles here at camp – Waterfront Director. JEREMY leads from example at the waterfront and runs it extremely effectively, while allowing all to have fun in the process.

JACK BEHAR is the leader in the Senior Cabin. Whether he is out on the softball diamond or anywhere else on camp, everybody can see or here JACK and he will always be leading by example and demonstrating perfect Menominee leadership. JACK is a fantastic role model for the younger campers at Menominee.

JACK CARTER has always been a vocal leader, even from a young age. This is JACK's fourth year at the Friendly Confines and he has matured and become more of a leader, year on year.

LEO NECHELES. Despite being unable to play due to injury, this has not held LEO back and he can often be found cheering on his team from the side-lines. LEO has set a great example to the younger campers and shown them that you can also be a leader watching the game, instead of just being a leader on the field.

JACOB SCHNEIDER always leads in his cabin, in Twi-Light League and in every other sport he puts his mind to. JACOB has shown that he is able to lead the way in most sports and is a great role model to those around him and encourages others to try new things. JACOB will be at the forefront of the Kawaga competition, leading the way.

CHASE KAPLAN. Despite being his first year, CHASE has stepped up and shown his leadership within Twi-Light League. CHASE has been able to demonstrate his leadership through coaching others around him and helping others improve.

SIMON MANN has demonstrated his leadership through his all round attitude on camp. Despite only being young, SIMON is not afraid to start chants, lead his peers and cabin friends into new experiences or activities and SIMON is ready to lead by example in skit nights.

JAKE HERMAN. JAKE has always been a leader at camp. His coaching and leadership is beyond those around him and it is thanks to his ability to lead that the team around him succeed and wins championships. JAKE is not afraid to step up and lead leagues or other events at CM. His leadership is an example to his peers.

Paddleball Leagues By Adam Phelps

Campers are currently facing off head to head to be ranked and placed in tournament brackets later on in the session vs people their age or skill. In the senior division, SAM GOODMAN remains undefeated across all of his games. Despite being an intermediate, EMMETT KREZ has been another force and has defeated several opponents, including many seniors. In the junior division, ROBERT LOQUERCIO has been the defining force, defeating all other juniors in his league and is now willing to begin taking on the intermediates. BRADY WEISS and HARRY STEINER have both had commanding victories throughout their league campaigns so far and are hoping for a rematch of their King of the Camp paddleball championship game when the tournament begins. HARRY managed to take the win in the KOC final so BRADY will be hoping he is able to overturn that this time around. Good luck to all taking part.

Movie Night By Editor

After a day of fun in the rain, the campers showered, ate their canteen and descended on Wass Hall for another amazing skit night – Movie Night. First up were the juniors and Cabin 3 began proceedings with a retake of a scene from the film “Miracle”. CIT LOGAN ROSENGARD lined up the campers and made them run suicides when they answered incorrectly to “what is your job.” Each camper was pretending to be one of their counselors and provided funny answers of things they had done over the summer. Finally, ZACH FORMAN (playing ADAM BALTZ) ended the skit by correctly saying his job was to be “perfect.” Cabin 4 recreated a scene from “IT”, with BENY GOLDBERG being dragged into the sewers by NEO SCHNEIDER. The horror theme continued with cabin 5 as DRAKE ELMAN pretended to be Jason from Friday the 13th, killing many of his fellow campers. Last up in the junior division, cabin 6, produced the “Menominee Sandlot.” The campers were introduced out onto the stage, one by one and went through a question and answer session with CIT JAKE HOODACK. Each camper however was mimicking one of their counselors and gave tastful, but funny replies to the questions. The funniest impression was by TYLER FIELD, pretending to be CRISTIAN LADISLAU. When asked if he liked softball, TYLER shrugged his shoulders and instead showed off his impressive muscles and size. The juniors division was very close but the winners were announced as cabin 3. Well done MASON AUSLANDER, JJ BARBER, DYLAN FLETCHER, DYLAN PELTS, ZACH FORMAN, ZACH FIELD, CHARLIE PEACOCK and ETHAN SCHWARTZ. In the intermediate division, cabin 7 began with a remake of “Star Wars” – Star Cleaners. SAM ROSEN introduced the story behind the war. Each camper had given themselves a funny name, such as LUKE MASON – Darf Sweeper. Cabin 8 began with a retake of “The Incredibles” and THATCHER SCHILLER pretending to be Frozone, asking where his supersuit was – his Menominee jersey. Cabin 11 followed with a remake of dodgeball and trying to dodge traffic. The cabin then broke into the final showdown and used tennis balls to recreate the win for Average Joes. Cabin 12 followed and created their very own Menominee version of “Jumanji”.

“We want to see the show”

GEORGE as Pennywise

before being transformed into Jumanji and their alterego’s, discussing their strengths and weaknesses. JACOB SCHNEIDER made the audience laugh a lot as he was transformed into ‘scout master’ CHRIS KOPKE. Next up was cabin 13 with a recreation of “Love Actually” scene where Mark tells Juliet he loves her on cards. Cabin 13 revamped this as a Menominee special and created their own cards, read by HARRY STEINER, about the love for camp. Cabin 19 were up next with their take on “Avengers Tryouts”, in which each camper pretended to be one of the counselors, while discussing what their superpowers were. Finally in the intermediate division was cabin 17 with “The Jason Anderson Show.” JASON ANDERSON was the host and created his own Jerry Springer-esque show to a loud applause and laughter from the audience. The winners were cabin 13: ASHER BERMAN, ROWN HARRISON, ZACH BEN-ISVY, JACK CARTER, BEN MILCH,

ADAM STEIN, HARRY STEINER, NATHAN GELFGAT and BENJAMIN TAYLOR. Finally, in the senior age division, Cabin 14 began with a remake of the Lion King and showing ‘Simba’ to the onlooking lions. Cabin 15 created a three part “Star Wars” edition which included a Woody arrival back at camp and counselor DWAYNE O’DE FREITAS. Cabin 15 left the stage to a loud round of applause and laughter thanks to “Daddy DWAYNE.” Cabin 16 were up next and combined their Lion King soundtrack to an advert for Geico Car Insurance. Cabin 2 took to the stage next with JAKE REINHARDT taking the lead in a quick remake of “McFarland, USA.” Cabin 9 created their very own remake of “Rocky” called ‘Rocky with Asthma’ while Cabin 10 created their own version of “Finding Nemo” – “Finding Woody”. In this skit, XANDER SCHILLER asked each of the campers, who were playing counselors and admin where Woody was where they would give funny answers. The penultimate skit was by the Senior Cabin, with a recreation of “IT”. The campers, playing counselors, were shown their biggest fear by David ‘Pennywise’ Wood, portrayed by GEORGE NASSAR. This had the audience in a large amount of laughter and were deserved winners. Congratulations cabin 18: JACK BEHAR, DANIEL MALIS, MAX MASON, ISAAC MILLER, RYAN FIRMIN, KADEN LISKA, SAM STEINER, ALEX STELZER, GAVIN BRAMWIT, ALEC GAU, LOUIE KANTER, GEORGE NASSAR, WILL PRICE, PETER GAU, NOAH DAVIES, JAMES MILLS, DANIEL WHITE, TYLER LONGNECKER, KASE RATZLAFF and SAM MYERTHALL.

Riddle of the Day: Mountains will crumble, temples will fall, no man can survive its endless call. What am I?
(Submit your correct answer to the Megaphone Office for a free canteen)

Friday’s Riddle: I like to dance, twist, prance. I shake my tail, as away I sail. Wingless I fly into the sky. What am I?

Answer: A Kite

Winners: JOSH KENNEDY
